The plebiscite stamps were not valid for postage very long. By August 20, 1920, they were invalidated.

3 April, 1920 Stamps of Germany, overprinted

To advertise the plebiscite, special postage stamps were produced by overprinting German stamps and sold from 3 April. The overprint reads "TRAITÉ / DE / VERSAILLES / ART. 94 et 95" referring to the Articles 94 and 95 of the treaty of Versailles inside an oval whose border gave the full name of the plebiscite commission.
